SafeDNS Agent is a complex yet user-friendly software solution aimed to offer you the means of preventing malware infections from dangerous websites, by blocking access to specific categories of pages, as well as white- and blacklisting certain URLs. Clear-cut and intuitive looks Once installed, you will need to log in using your account credentials, after which the utility retreats to the notification area, where it protects you without interfering with your activity. The main window of the program allows you to configure SafeDNS Agent's functioning parameters, as well as enable or disable filtering, with a single button press. Setup up a web filtering profile and decide which sites to permit or block In order to protect yourself and other people using the same PC as you (for instance your children), firstly you should configure the tool's 'Settings', as initially, it uses a default profile. Consequently, you can create one or more custom profiles, and switch between them as needed. SafeDNS Agent lets you modify 'Content Filtering Settings', allowing you to determine the categories of websites that are permitted or blocked, based on their type: 'Illegal Activity', 'Adult Related', 'Bandwidth Hogs', 'Time Wasters' or 'General Sites'. The 'Black / White Lists' section helps you prevent access to specific websites, by specifying their URL. Moreover, the 'Schedule' component enables you to define strict hours of Internet usage. From the 'Advanced' tab, you can decide to allow only the sites you whitelisted or block all unknown pages. Furthermore, SafeDNS Agent is able to protect the current configuration with a password, so others won't be able to change it without your permission. Similarly, you can bind specific PC users to a filtering profile of your choice. A handy means of protecting yourself from online dangers As a conclusion, SafeDNS Agent proves to be an efficient and reliable application that can successfully assist you in blocking access to certain web contents, being able to reduce the level of threat faced by your computer whenever you browse the Internet. What does the 'c' in the material syntax mean? // A: material C; // B: material const A; // C: material &A; A: c is the index of a material constant, which is basically a struct with name and val for every possible value (there are 16 base materials). In the case of UVs it will be a 4x4 matrix of vec4's, again repeated 16 times. Let's create a material with two textures, one for the diffuse and one for the normal (because why not): material c2d { texture { tex_name: "c:\path\tex_dif.jpg" tex_

System Requirements For SafeDNS Agent:

Recommend you have a 4 GB or larger hard drive for the game to be loaded on. We recommend this due to the size of the 3D model, pictures, textures, and sounds of the game. To run the game in normal mode, it will require at least 512MB of RAM (though it will run with 256MB as well). To run the game in fast mode, it will require 512MB of RAM. Please also note that the game is still in development. There are a lot of small problems and bugs, and when we release a version of the game
